Welcome to the September 2004 edition. To begin with, I hope you found the special edition of the Newsletter, dedicated to Hurricane Frances, helpful.

September 2004 will certainly be a memorable month. Floridians will long remember the month for Hurricane Frances, and the fact is that the hurricane season is far from over. The terrorist horror in a school in Russia has had an impact on the world community. And, of course, we will all remember where we were three years ago on September 11, 2001.

This month's Monthly Special Zone features some web sites dedicated to the memory of September 11. We also have a site about the International Day of Peace on September 21; something that certainly sounds like a wonderful idea given recent world developments. Finally, September marks the beginning of Autumn here. We have a site dedicated to the colours of autumn.

THE MONTHLY SURVEY

LAST MONTH'S SURVEY

Last month's question dealt with your interest, if any, in the Summer Olympic Games. The question was "Which sport(s) will you specifically tune in to watch during the 2004 Summer Olympics in Greece?"

23 people responded to the survey. Here are the results:

8 votes No interest at all
6 votes Track and Field events
3 votes Gymnastics
3 votes Swimming

Other sports mentioned included weightlifting, soccer, rowing, beach volleyball, diving, tennis and basketball.

THIS MONTH'S SURVEY

Let's make the survey a little light-hearted this month. My wife and I have no children, but there are two other inhabitants of our home, namely Abbey and Nenagh, our two 8-year old Irish Setters. They are, without a doubt, members of the family. People tell us we talk about and treat these two just like kids!

So, this month, tell us about your pets, if you have any. The question is "What pets do you have?" Please feel free to be specific (breed, name, etc.).

Please send your response, by e-mail, to hfnewsletter@yahoo.com

THE COMMENTS ZONE

JOHN MCCOLMAN, Chester, Virginia: (On the Special Hurricane Edition) An excellent guide, Sheldon. Very well done.

RAY BAUERNHUBER, Whitestone, New York: I'd like to particularly thank you for two internet links in the August Newsletter: the Radio Gold Index and Amateur Radio Resources. Very helpful and informative.

THE CONTRIBUTORS ZONE

I have to say I'm really disappointed by the contribution rate this month. Besides myself and good old Elmer who we can count on every month, there were only two other contributors for this issue! OK, it's summer and you're outside enjoying life. Let's see if we can pick things up again with the coming of the fall season.

THE MONTHLY SPECIAL ZONE

SEPTEMBER 11 NEWS ARCHIVES

http://www.september11news.com/

Sept. 11th archived news, photos, graphics, images, webs, and newspapers. News archives from September 11, 2001 and the years that followed 9/11/01.

THE SEPTEMBER 11 DIGITAL ARCHIVE

http://www.911da.org/

The September 11 Digital Archive uses electronic media to collect, preserve, and present the history of the September 11, 2001 attacks in New York, Virginia, and Pennsylvania and the public responses to them. Funded by a major grant from the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation and organized by the American Social History Project at the City University of New York Graduate Center and the Center for History and New Media at George Mason University, the Digital Archive will contribute to the on-going effort by historians and archivists to record and preserve the record of 9/11 by: collecting first-hand accounts of the 9/11 attacks and the aftermath (especially voices currently under-represented on the web), collecting and archiving emails and digital images growing out of these events, organizing and annotating the most important web-based resources on the subject, and developing materials to contextualize and teach about the events.

THE 11 SEPTEMBER WAR ON TERROR PORTAL

http://www.11-sept.org/

The War of Terror Portal was created out of our sense of helplessness after the September 11 terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center in New York, a sense that we found we shared with millions of people not just in the U.S., but around the world.
There were three things we all seemed to need: information, something to do, and some way to connect with others going through the same trauma.
After the blood was given, after the cookies were delivered to the local firehouses, after the phone calls to loved ones were made, we still were left wanting to do more.
And that is what this portal is for.
This portal serves all those who are and who will be affected by the terrorist acts of September 11, 2001 and the subsequent war on terror.

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE

http://www.internationaldayofpeace.org/

The United Nations has proposed a tangible goal that will help unite our global community and shift our consciousness. The world is joining together to create a Global Ceasefire and humanity's first day of peace in our homes, our communities and between nations on the International Day of Peace, Tuesday, September 21, 2004.

FALL COLOUR IN THE EASTERN UNITED STATES

http://ncnatural.com/fall-color/

One of the greatest shows in the natural world occurs yearly in the forests and fields of the eastern United States as prolific flowers, turning leaves and colorful creatures paint the Autumn landscape.
Nature's annual autumn color festival is certainly one of the greatest shows on earth. Each fall, millions of trees in the eastern deciduous forests respond to the shorter days and cooler nights by beginning preparations for their dormant winter period. It is just business as usual for the trees, but for us, it is a spectacular display of the beauty and diversity of nature.

THE RADIO ZONE

SURFING THE AETHER A BRIEF HISTORY OF RADIO

http://www.northwinds.net/bchris/home.html

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

These pages chronicle some of the events, inventions, and notable moments that made radio what it is today. With a quick study of this history, you may discover some interesting parallels between radio and the growth of the Internet.

XERF-THE BEST DARN STORY OF THE WHOLE 20TH CENTURY

http://www.ominous-valve.com/xerf.html

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

Many radio fans will remember the heydays of the Mexican border AM radio stations; the famous DJs, the great music, and the powerful signals. This page tells the story of the "X" stations, including XERF.

THE WOLFMAN JACK ON-LINE MUSEUM

http://wolfmanjack.org/

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

A tribute to one of the best known DJs in the history of radio. This site has lots of photos, audio clips, historical and biographical information and lots more.

RADIO LOVERS

http://www.radiolovers.com/

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

This site offers hundreds of vintage radio shows for you to listen to online in mp3 format, all for free; radio shows such as Abbott and Costello, Superman, Groucho Marx, The Avenger, Gunsmoke, Sherlock Homes, and many others. When TV become popular in the 1950's, most of these shows went off the air, but they now live on at websites such as this one and on weekly nostalgia radio broadcasts worldwide.

PLASTIC DECO RADIOS FROM THE 1930s AND 1940s

http://www.decoradios.com/

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

This is a website from Mr. Steve Davis featuring an excellent collection of classic old radios.

REVERSE TIME PAGE

http://uv201.com/framepage1.htm

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

Mike Schultz, creator of this page, writes: "I am a collector, a hunter-gatherer, a pack-rat. I like old radios, clocks, tubes, electrical gadgets, and things related, like advertising and promotional items, and old photographs. I created this site to showcase some of my more interesting and unique acquisitions. I hope you find it interesting and educational. The contents are generally organized into the categories shown to the left. Most are self explanatory. The "Audio" category includes such things as microphones, speakers, and amplifiers. The "Video" category includes television related items. The "Promotional" category is for advertising items, and "Odds and Ends" is everything else."

RADIO AMATEUR ONLINE

http://www.radioamateuronline.com/

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

If you're looking for something on-line on any aspect of amateur radio and can't find it on this page of resources, then it probably doesn't exist. No doubt that this page will keep anyone with an interest in amateur radio busy for hours, if not days and weeks to come.

YOUR REMOTE S-METER

http://www.smeter.net/

VIA Fred Lesnick, Thunder Bay, Ontario

This is a site for radio amateurs, broadcast engineers, radio propagation researchers, and anyone else interested in checking remote signal strengths and audio quality, or simply listening remotely to LF, MF, HF, or VHF signals.

DAILY WIRELESS

http://www.dailywireless.org/

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

The site is headlined "All Wireless, All the Time". This is a huge collection of information, articles, reference lists, links, etc. on the broad subject of wireless technology.

VIA Elmer Standish, Courtenay, British Columbia

From 1920 to 1990 we list all of the craziest fads that have come and gone. Go back a few decades and read about the silly to serious fads that helped change our society and create a pop-culture.

THE MUSEUM OF UNNATURAL HISTORY

http://unmuseum.mus.pa.us

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

The Museum of Unnatural Mystery is the brainchild of Lee Krystek. Mr. Krystek had for a long time wanted to build a museum that would explore the fringe edges of science and at the same time use those subjects to get people interested in the more mundane aspects of scientific work. A brick and mortar museum was far beyond his means, but the creation of the worldwide web provided a medium that was affordable enough for him to realize his dream.

THE WITCHES' LEAGUE OF PUBLIC AWARENESS

http://www.celticcrow.com/

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

Welcome to the WLPA's web home. Here you will find a wide array of informational and community resources. From media reviews, to holiday and ritual ideas, to news on current Craft issues, the volunteers at the WLPA strive to gather together a variety of material for your perusal. For over a decade now, the WLPA has fought to dispel the misconceptions surrounding Witchcraft and Wicca. We continue to work with schools, government agencies, the media, and when the need arises, directly with the private sector. It is our belief that only through the education of the public at large that we can overcome the prejudice that to this day keeps some Witches in the "broom closet". As a subculture, we've come a long way, but we still have a long way to go. As long as there are Witches who are afraid to come out publicly, there will always be the need for organizations such as ours.
